

Hello friends.

I just took a muddy blossomy walk on a ridge near our housing estate.

Someone (clever) had left some big white cows up there to have a munch and keep the grass trimmed (and a bit fertilized).

Which was a fantastic surprise.

Because I am forgetful, I find that every time God reaches out to me personally and noticeably, it is a surprise. A fantastic surprise.

I pray that we would all notice God the Holy Spirit, personally, interrupting our lives and surprising us for the next few weeks. (At least!)

Loads of love and prayers
