

VINTAGE ADVENTURE

@ HOME

Our Saviour God

Dear Vintage Adventure @ Home friends,

Happy Easter! Welcome to our April Vintage Adventure @ Home booklet, which focuses on the festival of Easter. Whether you have a strong faith or are just exploring what it may be like to have a Christian faith, we pray that you will find something of interest and encouragement.

What an incredible season we are in! As we noted last month, daffodils, crocus, camellias and a host of other flowers are cheering us. Then, of course, the clocks have gone forward which, although it means an hour less sleep, does mean the evenings stay lighter for longer.

Do you look forward to Easter? For many children and adults, there is the excitement of hunting Easter eggs, and of course, eating them! Perhaps you love the Easter hymns and the hope they bring. This month we are finding out about the hymn Rock of Ages, cleft for me. Margaret shares some information she discovered, when visiting the area, which influenced the hymn writer.

Susan, whom some of you know, has written our worship this month, and we pray that you will be inspired as you read it. On the cross, Jesus took the penalty for all our wrongdoing, so that we might be forgiven and our relationship with God restored. If you would like to do so, we offer a short prayer to help you commit yourself to Jesus. You won't regret it.

We include two thought provoking poems: by Catherine Aldis and one of our Vintage Adventure @ Home readers, Rev David Corfe. And on a different note, for those of you unable to get out but who enjoy a good read, we have flagged up a Southampton library service which delivers books to your door!

Don't forget to tell us about your favourite hymns! And finally, remember that we are each so very special to God that He offers us the free gift of salvation and eternal life!

With our love and Easter blessings Cynthia and your Caraway friends.

Rock of Ages

The story throughout generations has been told that Rev Toplady, whilst a curate in the village of Blagdon, was travelling along Burrington Combe near Cheddar one day, when he was caught in a storm. He found shelter in a gap in the gorge at Burrington Combe and scribbled down the words to this hymn. He focuses on the fact that it is through God's grace that we are saved and not through any efforts or good works of our own. It is purely through the blood of Jesus we are saved, cleansed and given the power to live pure before Him. Like Rev Toplady we too can find shelter in the Rock - The Rock of Ages.

WORSHIP

Opening Prayer

Lord Jesus, fill our hearts with the Joy of Easter. May the celebration of Christ's resurrection bring us true happiness. Let this Joy overflow into our words and actions so that others may see Your light in us. Remove all burdens that steal our Joy and replace them with the assurance of Your love. Help us to rejoice in Salvation and walk in the freedom Christ has given us. Amen

Hymn - Rock of Ages

Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in Thee;
let the water and the blood, from Thy wounded side which flowed,
be of sin the double cure;
save from wrath and make me pure.

Not the labours of my hands can fulfill Thy law's demands; could my zeal no respite know,
could my tears forever flow,
all for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

Nothing in my hand I bring,
simply to the cross I cling;
naked, come to Thee for dress;
helpless, look to Thee for grace;
foul, I to the fountain fly;
wash me, Saviour, or I die.

While I draw this fleeting breath, when mine eyes shall close in death,
when I soar to worlds unknown,
see Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in Thee.

Augustus Toplady (1776)

Reflection

This hymn captures the journey of faith, acknowledging sin, recognising grace and embracing redemption. Whilst reflecting on the words of this hymn, let us examine our faith and remember the sacrifice made for us. Rock of Ages is not just a hymn; it is a story of God's unwavering love and righteousness.

The Power of The Cross

John 11:25-26

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in Me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

This passage foreshadows Jesus' power over death, which is fully revealed in His own resurrection. Believers can trust in His power to bring life from death. The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is the foundation of the Christian faith. Without the Resurrection, the belief in God's saving grace is destroyed.

John 11:1-44

The story of Lazarus is a significant account in the New Testament. Lazarus, along with his sisters, Martha and Mary were close friends of Jesus. Lazarus was raised from the dead by Jesus, demonstrating Christ's power and foreshadowing His own resurrection.

The story highlights Jesus' authority over death and offers hope for resurrection through faith in Him.

The resurrection was a real, literal, physical raising of Jesus' body from the dead. Jesus was arrested, tried and found guilty of claiming to be king. His torn, bruised, beaten and unrecognisable body hung on the cross between two thieves. After His death, Jesus' body was wrapped in linen cloth, placed in a tomb with a large stone rolled across the opening.

On the third day, an early Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene and another Mary came to the tomb and found it empty. Sitting on the rolled-away stone was an Angel of the Lord, who told them not to be afraid because Jesus had risen. As the women left to tell the disciples, Jesus met them and showed them His nail-pierced hands.

Thomas, a disciple of Jesus, who is known as doubting Thomas, said he would not believe, unless he could see the holes in Jesus' nail-pierced hands.

John 20:24-25

But Thomas, sometimes called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples told him, "We saw the Master." But He said, " Unless I see the nail holes in His hands, put my fingers in the nail holes, and thrust my hand into His side, I won't believe it."

If you are not sure where you will spend eternity, then pray this prayer from your heart with me today:

"Lord Jesus, I thank You for Your sacrifice and resurrection. I believe in You and ask for the forgiveness of my sins and the gift of eternal life. I choose to live the rest of my life for You." Amen

Closing Prayer

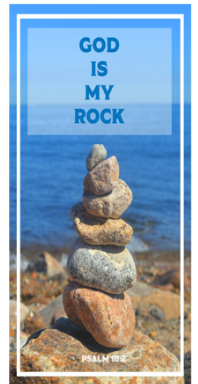

Lord Jesus, my heart overflows with gratitude for what You have done. You took my sin, my shame, and my burdens to the cross, and in exchange, You gave me grace, mercy and eternal life. I will never comprehend the depth of Your love, but today I choose to live in thankfulness. Help me to never take Your sacrifice for granted. Amen

Reflection: Rock of Ages

There are many words and phrases used to describe God and today we're looking at our God as the Rock of Ages. When everything around us is in turmoil and nothing seems stable or reliable anymore, it's easy to feel overwhelmed. Who can be trusted? Politicians often change their minds; the economy is up and down and our weather is so unpredictable! Our own emotions can often be fickle: one day we're happy and coping well, another day we may wake up feeling low. We all need stability in our lives, and we can find it, as we look to Jesus our Rock of Ages. Often we refer to a close friend or family member as 'our rock' and say, "I don't know what I'd do without him/her.", and yet even our closest friends can let us down. When we look to Jesus, we can truly say, "He is my rock" - for we know that He is reliable, trustworthy, and will always be there for us. The Bible says:

*Trust [confidently] in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting Rock
[the Rock of Ages]. Isaiah 26: 4*

Jesus told the story of two men who built houses. One built his house upon the sand - the storm came, winds blew, and his house fell flat. The other built his house upon a rock and when the storm came and winds blew, his house stood firm. Our lives are like those houses.

On what foundation are we building our lives? Sand or rock; on what our friends, TV or social media tell us or upon the words of Jesus? When we build our thoughts and lives upon God's Word, the precious promises in the Bible and what Jesus has said, then we are building our lives upon the solid rock and when the storms of life come trying to knock us sideways - we may look a little dishevelled - but we'll still be standing! For Jesus said,

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock." Matthew 7:24

A lady I knew, loved to tell me the story of when she was a young girl and swam in the sea in her homeland, Jamaica. One day she was swimming with her older brother, and she got into difficulty. She called to her brother for help. There was a rock nearby, jutting out of the water and her brother yelled back, "Hold on to the rock L, hold on to the rock." She did and was safe, whilst her brother came to rescue her. Next time something unexpected shakes us, let's remember those words and hold on to The Rock. When everything around us is moving and we feel wobbly, we need something/someone steady and stable. At such times we can cry out to the Lord, and He will answer and help us. He is the Rock, which doesn't move - or as someone has sung in more recent years, "The Rock which doesn't roll!"

In the days and weeks ahead, let's each remember to hold on to Jesus and His words.

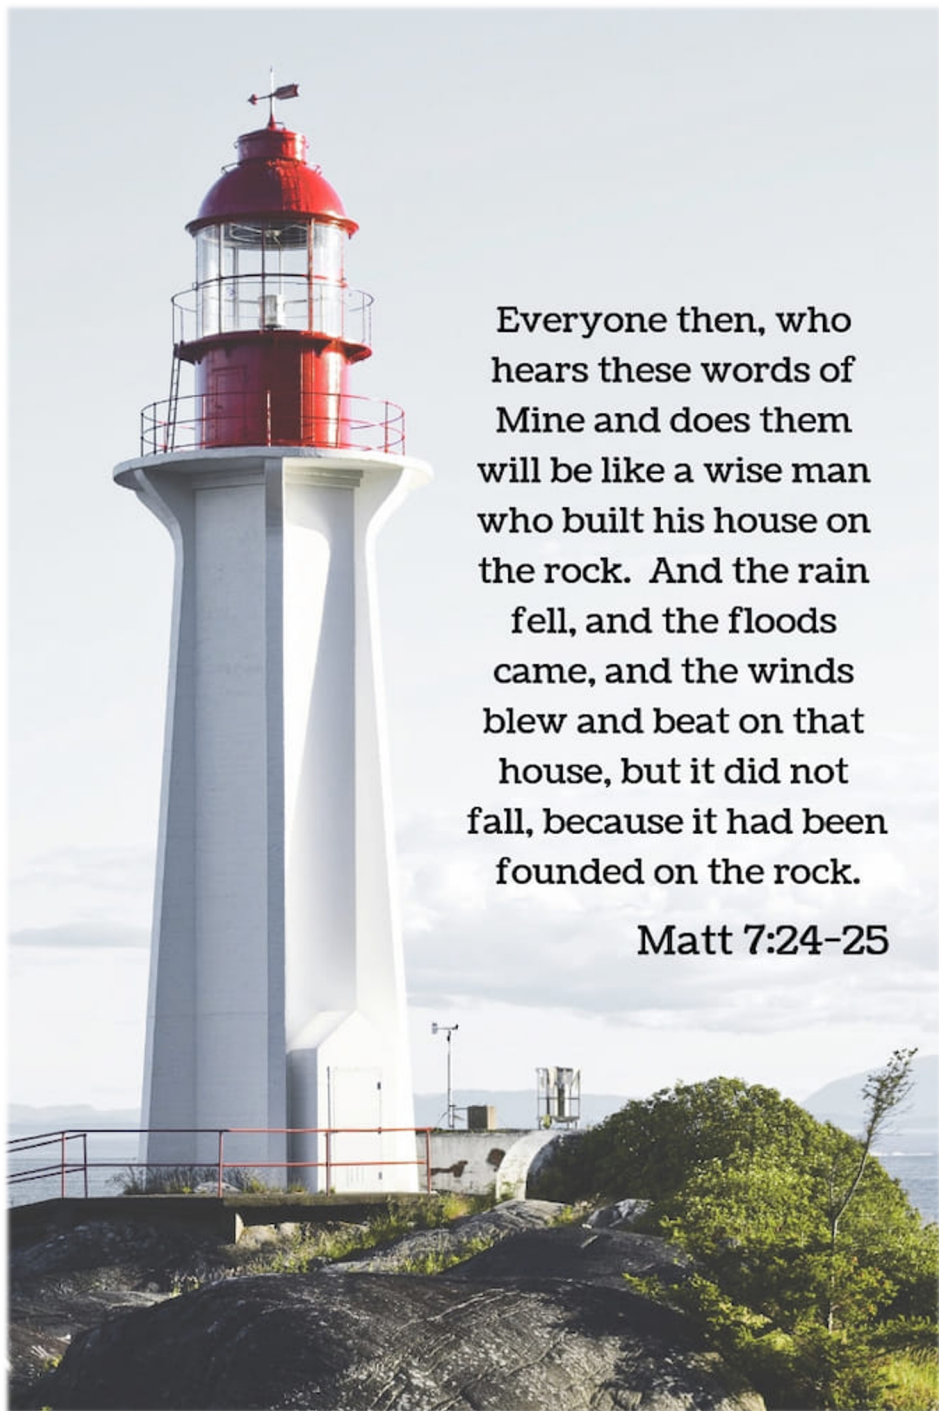

*Even to your old age, I am He, and even to your advanced old age, I will carry you!
I have made you, and I will carry you. Be assured I will carry you and I will save you.*

Isaiah 46:4

From the end of the earth I call to You, when my heart is overwhelmed and weak; lead me to the Rock that is higher than I. Psalm 61:2

God bless you.

Margaret

Everyone then, who hears these words of Mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock.

Matt 7:24-25

The Story of Rock of Ages

Perhaps you feel that this month's hymn is rather solemn but as Margaret's reflection mentions, it points to something wonderful about God's love for me and you.

Born in Farnham, in 1740, Augustus Montague Toplady's father was a major in the Royal Marines, dying when Augustus was just five months old. So he grew up an only child, a complex, solitary individual. He attended Westminster School, after which his mother moved with him to Ireland.

Augustus became a Christian at sixteen, and after graduating from Trinity College, Dublin, moved back to Westminster, where he was influenced by preachers such as George Whitefield and John Wesley. Ordained at only 22, he initially served in Blagdon, close to Cheddar Gorge in Somerset. On the one hand, he was gentle, humble, caring and loved by his parishioners. But he was also a loner for much of his short life: sadly he died of consumption (tuberculosis) aged 38.

As Margaret writes, a popular story is that he wrote Rock of Ages on the back of a playing card, while sheltering from a violent storm in a cave in nearby Burrington Combe. Perhaps he had in mind the verse:

Trust in the Lord for ever, for the Lord our Lord is the Rock of Ages. Isaiah 26:4

Christianity differs from other religions in that it confronts the seriousness of sin and its impact on our relationship with God, each other and our world. Last month we reflected on God as mighty Creator, Whose goodness makes Him 'holy' and utterly different from us. We saw that the difference between His goodness and ours, creates a gap between us and God. Nevertheless, God longs for relationship with us, but the Bible tells us that we can do nothing to solve the problem ourselves. Only God can resolve this problem, and He devised a way to bridge the gap by sending His Son Jesus.

Jesus was a real, historical person Who lived and died 2000 years ago in what is now modern day Israel. The evidence for Jesus' existence is overwhelming, not only Christian but secular Roman and Jewish historians of the time have written about Him.

So the question is not, Did Jesus exist? But Who was He really?

Many people say He was a good man, a moral teacher, Who taught about love and modelled a good life. And they are partly right. However, when talking about Himself, Jesus claimed to be the Son of God. He said, "I am the way, and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through Me." John 14:6. Jesus wasn't saying He could point the way to God, He was claiming to BE the way, the truth and the life.

Why is Easter a particularly important festival for Christians and why is the cross at the heart of the Christian faith? Why do almost one third of the Gospels focus on Jesus' death? The answer is that Christians believe it is ONLY through Jesus death and resurrection that our relationship with God is restored.

The Bible tells us that Jesus chose to die on the cross to restore our relationship with God, and demonstrate just how precious each of us is to Him.

Augustus wrote a very personal hymn, using the pronouns, I, my, me. So we read Not the labour of my hands can fulfil Thy law's demands.

No matter how hard we try, we cannot meet God's standards. We can't ever be good enough. No matter how earnest we are, how good our intentions or deep our sorrow, only God can rescue us.

*Could my tears forever flow
All for sin could not atone.
Thou must save, and Thou alone.*

Augustus admits his helplessness:

*Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Your cross I cling.*

On the cross, Jesus, God Himself, paid the ultimate price we owe. If it were up to you and me to restore the relationship, we could never be absolutely certain we'd done sufficient. Before He died, Jesus called out, "It is finished!" Jesus had completed God's rock solid rescue plan.

You have probably come across this verse: For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life. John 3:16.

If we trust Him, God is indeed our Rock of Ages.

How to stand upon The Rock

It's never too late to start building your life upon Jesus, The Rock. The Bible is full of God's precious promises. As we find His promise relating to our need, remind Him of it, believe it and stand on it, then we are standing on The Rock and He will work the situation out.

Hymn

Christ is my firm foundation the rock on which I stand
When everything around me is shaken
I've never been more glad that I put my faith in Jesus. He's never let me down, He's faithful through generations so why would He fail now? He won't I've still got joy in chaos, I've got peace that makes no sense
And I won't be going under I'm not held by my own strength
'Cause I built my life on Jesus He's never let me down
He's faithful in every season so why would He fail now?
He won't, He won't. He won't fail, He won't fail

Bible Verses – God's promises

Philippians 4:6

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

Isaiah 41:10

*So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you.*

Isaiah 41:13

*For I am the LORD your God, Who takes hold of your right hand and says to you,
"Do not fear; I will help you."*

Prayer

How to pray in a difficult situation:

*Dear Heavenly Father, thank You that You have promised to (put the promise relating to your need here) and I thank You that you watch over Your Word to perform it.
I stand on Your Word, believing You are in the process of meeting my need.
Thank You Father for holding me safe. In Jesus' Name, I pray. Amen*

(If you would like a Chaplain to help you with this prayer, please let us know, details are on the back page.)

Utterly loved

Utterly loved,
that's what I am, Lord utterly loved by You. –
Not that You condone my sins, but with undeserved mercy
and infinite patience,
You draw them to my attention,
quicken recognition,
Lead me to repentance,
then assure me of Your full pardon.
This is amazing, Lord almost too wonderful to be – yet I know it's true!
So I stand in Your presence, cleansed, renewed,
to face the coming day with You.

The Centurion's Story

As we drove nails through His flesh
we heard Him gasping forgiveness.

We did a painstaking job,
His hands and feet were well bloodied.

Thirty-three,
we cut Him short;
He seemed to think His work complete.

Did He doubt?
We heard Him cry,
then entrust Himself to His God.

Could it be that to pardon
all us murderers
He gave His blood?

When we killed
Him did He think He was some sort of sacrifice?

His empty tomb challenged us;
we guessed death at last was done for.

April Fools' Trivia

The tradition of April Fools began with the change from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar in the 16th century. In the Julian calendar the New Year began in April. When in 1582 Pope Gregory XIII replaced the calendar, the New Year changed to begin with January. Despite most countries adhering to it, the news failed to reach many people and in France they continued to celebrate New Year in April. The people that knew about the change started calling them 'April Fools' and played tricks on them and this spread across the world. The last countries to convert to the Gregorian calendar were Russia (1918) and Greece (1923). Both countries, however, continue to follow the Julian calendar for liturgical purposes, hence they have different dates for Easter and Christmas.

April Fools' Day traditions in other countries

England – A rule has been stipulated that pranks and hoaxes are allowed until noon only. Anyone breaking the rule is taunted with: "April Fools' Day past and gone, you're the fool for making one."

France and Italy – April Fools is called "Poisson d'Avril" and "Pesce d'Aprile" respectively. It means April Fish, because it coincided with Lent, when meat was forbidden and fish was eaten instead. Children tape a picture of a fish on the backs of their colleagues and wait for the transgression to be discovered.

Brazil – The date became famous in Brazil after a satirical publication called 'A Mentira' (the Lie) announced in 1828 that Don Pedro, Emperor of Brazil had died.

Scotland – Scotland liked it so much they extended the date to two days. The first day they try to send a friend on a fools' errand and on the second day, the 'Taily Day' they tape a sign 'Kick me' on the posterior of any unsuspecting victim!

Poland – Pranks are allowed but serious activities are avoided. This conviction is so strong that when the alliance with Leopold I (Holy Roman Emperor) against the Turks was signed on 1st April 1683, it was backdated to 31st March!
